7. (Internal Use Only - LLM) Called Ted Kazy, Senior Staff Assistant, House Post Office and Civil Service Committee, to learn if he had any information on the prospects for the appointment and action of the commission on executive/legislative/judicial salary. Kazy said that he thought it would only take about a week for the commission to submit its report to the President after it is appointed and that while there is still time to meet the statutory deadline for the President's submission to Congress, he is somewhat surprised that the three Presidential commission members have not been appointed. He has no information on when they will be, or when the Chief Justice will make his appointments. Mr. Fisher was advised.

Kazy said he had meant to call me to alert us to H. R. 17255, a bill introduced by Representative Frank Brasco (D., N. Y.) concerning labor management in the Federal Government. Kazy said that the bill contains no exemptions and that it has all the labor benefits in the National Labor Relations Act without any of the burdens. Kazy believes it will be pushed in the new Congress. I thanked him for the alert and said we would get together as soon as we have had an opportunity to review the bill.

8. (Unclassified - RJK) Delivered to the offices of Senators Abraham Ribicoff (D., Conn.), Henry M. Jackson (D., Wash.), and Stuart Symington (D., Mo.) FBIS items relating to their recent travels overseas.
